Healthy Living

Drink water with your meals, instead of sodas or juice, and drink it 30 minutes before eating, or wait until 30 minutes after you have eaten before you drink. This actually helps with your digestion.

Quick & Easy Financial Tip

Find Your Money Leak: Write down everything you spend...EVERYTHING. At the end of each month, track your income, and your outgoing money. You will be able to see where your money leak is, and it's much easier to fix it that way.

The MindSnack Corner

Personal development is an amazing journey: The breakthroughs, getting to know yourself, learning that you are absolutely amazing, and that possibilities are limitless because we are limitless. It is pretty difficult to grab a hold of this reality, simply because of the story that plays in our minds. Perhaps your story tells you that you don't deserve to be loved. You don't deserve to have good things. You can't be whatever you want to be in life. These, and many other stories, are self-sabotaging, self-defeating, stories. So how do we get past these stories? How do we come to the place where we are completely comfortable with pursuing our dreams, and celebrating our victories? Well the first step is to accept the fact that you are covered by God's AMAZING GRACE. I'd like to share an article that I read, by Steve Higgonbotham, of Jacksonville, FL, that paints the picture of Grace beautifully. "Oftentimes, Christians sell the Grace of God short. While we intellectually know that grace is undeserved, we often limit God's Grace to the more "deserving sinner." You know, the guy who is trying to do right, but makes "ordinary" mistakes. But that's our biggest problem. There is no such thing as a deserving sinner. The guy who walks too close to the mudhole and gets a little mud on the sides of his shoes is just as defiled and unfit for heaven as the guy who wallowed in the mudhole. Yet we often seem to forget this truth. But here is the reality: God's Grace isn't just for those who have most things under control, but just need a little help. Instead, Grace is for the helpless, and that includes EVERY ONE OF US!! The amount of mud on the shoes doesn't matter. You see, our righteousness exceeds as filthy rags. What that means is the absolute best we have to offer is filthy rags. Perhaps it is a good idea to remind ourselves of one of the old songs we sing. "Just as I am, without one plea, but that thy blood was shed for me, and that Thou bidd'st me come to Thee, Oh Lamb of God, I come! I come! Just as I am, and waiting not, to rid my soul of one dark blot; to Thee whose blood can cleanse each spot, Oh Lamb of God, I come! I come!" Instead of limiting God's Grace, let's lift our voices, and give thanks that God's Grace reaches even me!"
