Sympathy

The Trinity Gardens Family would like to extend our deepest sympathy to the family of Sister Bonnie Holden. We pray that our God of Comfort touches you in this difficult time.

Healthy Living

Stop drinking soda. Seriously. Soda is one of the worst things you can put in your body. They contain lots of calories from high fructose corn syrup, which is killing you. And don't drink diet soda either. The artificial sweeteners can be toxic, and they stimulate your appetite.

Quick & Easy Financial Tip

Simple Money Saving Tip: Open a savings account that only allows you to withdraw in person. Deposit 10% of your earnings into that account each pay period, and use that money to create, feed and grow your golden goose. Doing this consistently, will turn your financial life around dramatically over the next two to five years. Many opportunities to create extra streams of income require investments, and this habit will make sure that you always have the capital you need.

Daily Bible Reading

For the next five days, meditate on these daily bible readings.

Monday: Genesis, chapter 27
Tuesday: Genesis, chapter 28
Wednesday: Genesis, chapter 29
Thursday: Genesis, chapter 30
Friday: Genesis, chapter 31

The MindSnack Corner

Last week we began the planning process. One of the first things we did was to write a letter to our higher selves, and we began journaling our to-do list. How did that feel? Were you able to get clear? If not, then no worries. Just go through that exercise, until you are able to get clear. In this week's 'MindSnack' we will continue with the plan.

Now the best way to get a clear concise plan is to, first of all, not worry about the plan being perfect because as you grow, so will your plan. Secondly, you want to take that clear picture, and do something that is known as reverse engineering. In other words, work from the end to where you are. Remember, our conditioned mind has only one job, and that job is to keep us comfortable and to keep us safe. Danger is anything we haven't experienced before. So if the mind believes that what you are aiming for, you have already done, or experienced, then it will support you as you move forward. How do you manage to trick your mind into believing that you already have something that you don't yet have? Simple. We do it all the time with worry. We focus so intently on the worst possible outcome, and, as a result, we feel the results of that outcome, before we ever even start. So today, we are going to use that same power, only we are going to focus intently on what we want. Do this by creating a dream board. Covey calls this beginning with the end in mind. There are two options you can use, when creating your vision board. You can create one manually, using construction paper, magazine clippings, glue, scissors, etc., or you can actually create one online. For iPads, and iPhones, there is actually an app to create dream boards & get an accountability partner. Either way, the most effective way to use your dream board is to focus on it every day before you start your day, and before you go to bed. The pictures are all pictures of the outcome you want. Be as detailed, and intentional as possible. Remember. You are creating your life, so create a masterpiece. Include any vacations you may want to take, the car you want to drive, the amount of money you want...if you want better health, put that on there...whatever you are aiming for, include it on your dream board. Next week, we will talk about the next steps in creating your plan.
